

What impact will the next drought have on your community?

Don't wait to find out. Grow your communication & leadership skills & build your support network so you can focus on solutions today for a better tomorrow.

National Mentoring Program

Helping Regional Communities Prepare for Drought Initiative

12-month program | 12 mentoring sessions | 10 learning sessions
Tailored to rural Australian communities reliant on agriculture.
Option to become a mentor or find one for yourself.

Scan to learn more

The National Mentoring Program is part of the Helping Regional Communities Prepare for Drought Initiative. It is funded by the Australian Government's Future Drought Fund and delivered in partnership with the Foundation for Rural Regional Renewal and the National Farmers Federation.

